

You do not need to print off any of the challenges. You can complete them on a piece of paper and take a picture of your work to upload it to Twitter or Facebook.

Nursery	Prime Areas	Story Time	Number Time	Well Being
Week 9 Water	Physical Development Funky fingers activity. Fluency patterns. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7IJfpJ9Z-Jw&feature=youtu.be&t=1 Listens to stories with increasing attention and recall. Come Outside - Water What happened in the street? Where does the water for Auntie Mabel's house come from? Why did Pippin hide? Is able to follow directions (if not intently focused on own choice of activity). Join in with the 'Popcorn' dance. You pat with your hands, you tap with your fingers. Popcorn - Beat & Body Percussion	Listen to the strange story of Mrs McNosh's washing day. Mrs McNosh Hangs Up Her Wash by Sarah Weeks  A guided writing activity with a focus on rhyming words, based on the book 'Mrs McNosh Hangs Out Her Wash'. Mrs McCormick Hangs Out Her Wash. Enjoys rhyming and rhythmic activities. Can you spot the mistake in these popular nursery rhymes. Nursery Rhymes 	Count forwards and backwards 1 to 5. Recognise, say, identify and order numbers 1-5. Envelope number track Join in with these familiar counting songs. School Radio - Counting songs, Counting songs - medley Water play/ Capacity Provide buckets and bowls of water with different sized containers to explore and talk about. Use vocabulary such as full, empty, half full. Add food colouring to the water and pierce holes in some of the containers so they can create different effects. 	Join in with the singing and the actions of this joyful song, 'If you're happy and you know it', led by Mrs Bye. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6bOhSDDfxCw&feature=youtu.be&t Activities/ Recommendations to Support Emotional and Sensory Development A book about mindfulness. Children can listen with parents and try some of the ideas Happy: A Children's Book of Mindfulness

You do not need to print off any of the challenges. You can complete them on a piece of paper and take a picture of your work to upload it to Twitter or Facebook.